Behavior Agreement

At the YMCA we take the happiness of your children very seriously. We want every day here to become a happy memory for them. Along with our efforts, we need the children to help us create that environment by following some simple, but effective rules. Below is our Behavior Agreement, please read over it with your child and be sure they understand what it is and why they are signing it. - Before leaving the room, I will ask a staff member for permission.

Parent Statement of Understanding

PARENT HANDBOOK RECEIPT AND AGREEMENT

The YMCA of Southern Arizona is committed to the inclusion of children with disabilities who wish to participate in its recreational enrichment child care programs. In furtherance of the commitment, the YMCA of Southern Arizona will make reasonable modifications in its policies, practices and procedures to the extent that the application of such policies, practices and procedures would operate to deny a child with a disability an equal opportunity to participate in the program, provided that the modifications would not result in a fundamental alteration of the nature of the program.

The YMCA of Southern Arizona's child care programs are recreational enrichment programs. The YMCA of Southern Arizona is not equipped to provide clinical or therapeutic levels of support to the children who participate; therefore, a child who requires these or other personal services not generally provided to all children who participate in the program will not be eligible for participation in the program.

A child's continued enrollment in the program is dependent upon the ability of the YMCA of Southern Arizona to meet the needs of the child while maintaining the fundamental nature of the program for all participants as set forth in this policy. In the event that this cannot be achieved, the child's participation in the program will be discontinued. In addition, children who pose a threat to the health or safety of others will not be permitted to participate in the program.

(Adopted by the YMCA of Southern Arizona Executive Committee, October, 24, 2006)

I have received and/or read the Northwest YMCA's Enrichment Camp Parent Handbook. I agree with the rules and policies stated within this manual, and understand that we must follow these regulations that govern our participation in the YMCA. I also understand that I have to read the manual in order to understand these regulations and that staff is available to answer any questions I (we) may have.
