TABLE KEY:

DES Level: Assigned by your case worker based on your income level and size of household.

DES Daily Co Pay: Assigned by your case worker based on your DES level and/or your income and size of household.

YMCA Daily Fee: This is the cost that you pay based on whether you are a Y facility member or Y program member and is in addition to your co-pay. Y Facility members receive a discounted rate. ($X.XX Facility Member / $X.XX Program Member)

Total Daily Cost: This is the total cost per day you will be charged for your co-pay and Y program fees.

Cost for Absence: DES allows 2 absences per month. You will be billed for any absences the exceed the DES allowance.

Less than 6 hours: If your child is scheduled for a full day program and attends less than 6 hours, you will be charged the difference in full day vs part day cost.

OTHER INFORMATION:

If your child attends the program less than 15 minutes? This counts as an absence and you will be charged accordingly.

What is the difference between a Y facility membership and Y program membership? The Y Facility membership allows access to all Y facilities across Tucson as well as you'll receive a discount on most programs including child care. The Y program membership allows for program registrations.

Please review the parent handbook for more billing information.

Sample Weekly Cost:

Level 1: $1 Co-Pay + YMCA Fee $4 = $5/day

Weekly Cost = $20/week
